Individual Session

Option A is a Full Portrait Session:

You'll have a Design Call with Meka to get to know you and your needs. It's also where you'll ask all the questions you're unsure of so you're completely prepared for your photo day.

You will create multiple looks and select a minimum of ten (10) images. (Additional images may be purchased if desired.)

$2975

Option B is a Branding Bite Session:

For those who "just want one image" to update your business profile, or finally have a photograph of yourself that is incredible and you can't wait to frame and share with loved ones... and yes, admire for your own self.

With either option, it's your choice whether you'd like new professional images or to give yourself the personal photo session experience you've always wanted.

Each image will be professionally edited after the event and will be emailed to you as high resolution digital files.

Group Event

This booking option is designed to accommodate networking groups, or a casual group of your choice that is not part of a business or company, such as close friends or siblings.

Refreshments are provided... music is played... bonds are created and nurtured.

Please select a spokesperson or leader to schedule an initial Design Call to navigate details.

During each mini-session, multiple looks are created and portrait selections are made directly afterward.

Final professionally edited images are delivered as high resolution digital files to provided email addresses via email after the event.

$300/per person

Company Headshot Day

Consistent image branding that makes an impact? Yes, please. Imagine if EVERYONE in your company LOVED their profile photo...

Meka and the SMP Team will meet you at an agreed location.

You'll have a Design Call with Meka to discuss details and set expectations for the day.

Portrait selections are made directly after being photographed.

Each image will be professionally edited after the event and will be emailed to provided email address or a single contact person as high resolution digital files.
